ous exhaustion, nervous debility, impaired memory, low spirits, irritable temper, and a thousand and one derangements of mind and body. Epilepsy, paralysis, softening of the brain and even dread insanity sometimes result from such reckless self-abuse.

To reach, reclaim and restore such unfortunates to health and happiness, is the aim of the publishers of a book written in plain but chaste language, on the nature, symptoms and curability, by home treatment, of such diseases. This book will be sent sealed, in plain envelope, on receipt of ten cents in stamps to pay postage.

A BEE ON THE BALD SPOT. Right in the centre of Justice of the Peace J. C. Lowy's head is a bald spot. It is one of the baldest spots anywhere in Jersey City. Mr. Lowy is very proud of it. He says it is the effect of deep thought and a noble exemplification of the power of concentration of in-tellect. When he is deciding a case he rubs the spot for inspiration. The more he rubs it the shinier it gets, and the shinier it gets the more inspiration the justice derives from it.

Mr Lowy sat in his office Saturday morning reading a newspaper and sun ning his centre of inspiration. He was sunning it through his new straw hat which is perforated in the middle. Mr. Lowy bought the perforated hat as particularly fitted to the needs of his bald spot, and not, as his enemies allege, for conversational purposes.

Through the hole in the hat a ray of bright light reflected from the sunshine beamed in brilliancy. An inquisitive bee flew in at the open window, and on hovering wings sunned itself in the ray. The justice batted at the bee, which buzzed away around the room. It circled about in a narrowing course, coming nearer and nearer to the hat. Perhaps it was hypnotized by the shining spot, for it suddenly swooned down and crawled through the hole.

Justice of the peace Lowy signalized the entrance of the bee with startling ceremonies. He removed his perforat ed hat and cast it upon the floor. Then he smote the roof of his intellect violently and chanted a sororous chant, after which he waved his hands in the air and leaped round the room. The bee, having no hold on the slippery perch, slid off and fell on the table, where Mr. Lowy pounded it to death with an iron paper weight. went to the drug store and put his head under treatment. The pain was soon gone, but right at the middle of the candid and symmetrical circle of inspi ration there is a small red pyramidal hump. It is a mound to the memory of the unlamented bee.

THE LARGEST WOMAN DEAD .- Mrs. Sarah Steale, the largest woman in Ohio, if not in the United States, died at her home in Millersburg on Saturday, and was buried yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Steele had been an unusually large woman for a number of years, but recently she began to increase in bulk in a remarkable manner, and at the time of her death she weighed 675 pounds The coffin in which she was placed was too large to pass through the doors of house, and had to be lowered from a window. It was four feet seven inches wide, and of the same height. Twelve men acted as pallbearers, and they had no sinecure at that. Mrs. Steele was not a hearty eater, and never drank a glass of beer in her life. She died of fatty degeneration of the heart and a combination of diseases.

Knights of the Maccabees. The State Commander writes us from Lin-coln, Neb., as follows: "After trying other medicines for what seemed to be a very ob-stinate cough in our two children we tried Dr. King's New Discovery and at the end of two days the cough entirely left them. We will not be without it hereafter, as our exper-ience troyes that it carrs where all other ience proves that it cures where all other remedies fail." Singed F. W. Stevens, State Com. A False Diagnosis.

La Grippe is confounded by many persons with a severe attack of catarrh, which in some respects resembles the former. The individuals suffer severely with pain about the forehead, eyes and ears, with soreness in throat and stoppage of the nasal passages, and in fact, are incapacitated for work of any kind for days at a time. These are catarrhal sufferers. Ely's Cream Balm has been used with the best results in such cases. The remedy will give instant relief. will give instant relief.
